

Warmth of First Love

Keisha Fidelia Willie
Universitas Multimedia Nusantara
Indonesia

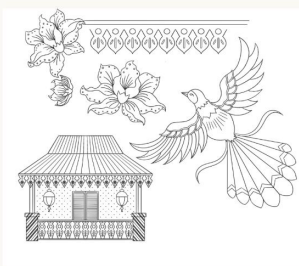

inspired from betawi heritage

Two playful fantail birds dance before a warm home, their joyful chase among jasmine and gambier blooms a poetic ode to pure, growing bonds and the laughter of true companionship.

warmth of First Love

This ornament pattern is inspired by Jakarta's icons: melati gambir flower, kebaya house, and Sunda pied fantail bird. The elements are simplified and combined into a unified, appealing design.

Asset sketch

Layouting

ID 429 Warmth of First Love

Keisha Fidelia Willie

Batik Betawi is a cultural heritage of Jakarta that continues to evolve with a modern touch. In this Ornament design, features two cheerful and lively pied fantail birds, symbolizing youthful spirit and harmonious relationships. The birds are depicted playing in front of a house, representing warmth and togetherness. The addition of jasmine gambier flowers enhances the meaning, symbolizing purity and the strength of growing bonds. This batik design is not only visually appealing but also rich in meaning, reminding us of the importance of nurturing sincere and joyful relationships.